

Pickity Place

May 7, 2021

Join Bloom Tours as we visit Pickity Place located in Mason, NH. Today, you will be brought back to a time when life was simple as you explore the diverse gardens of Pickity Place from their butterfly garden to their kitchen garden. Be sure to visit the 200 year old cottage that was the inspiration for grandmother's house in Elizabeth Orton Jones' "Little Red Riding Hood". While at Pickity Place, you will feast on a five course lunch. You will also have time to browse their gift shop. We will make a stop at Bolton Orchards on the way home. They are known for their fresh produce and baked goods.

Prices: $98 adults | $95 child

Includes:

Roundtrip Transportation & Lunch