

Vaillancourt

December 10, 1921 to December 10, 2021

Join us as we go behind the scenes of what makes Vaillancourt chalkware such a fine collectible: starting with the pouring technique that still uses molds dating back to the 19th century. Also included is a walk through the Vaillancourt Folk Art's Museum which displays one of the largest collections of antique confectionery molds and a history of gift giver folklore from various countries. Your tour is concluded in the Gallery at Vaillancourt Folk Art where chalkware, hand-blown Polish glass ornaments, and English Creamware are available to purchase to complete your experience. After completion of the tour, enjoy a delicious lunch at the historic Publick House in Sturbridge, MA! End the day with some shopping at the 160 year old Oakwood Christmas Barn, featuring unique farm made creations, ornaments, wreaths, and more. This is a trip you do not want to miss!
